ABSTRACT

This document is an example of what your camera-ready manuscript should look like. Authors are asked to conform to the directions reported in this document. REILA is International journal publishing about education matters that covers a broad spectrum in education, aiming to build bridges between research and policy and to address issues of concern to the different levels and types of education, transversal topics and 'big issues' for policy agendas. This includes an active and on-going discussion of national and international education policy. The Journal welcomes cross-disciplinary approaches within the education sector and with other sectors. REILA is a triannual publication journal, published every April, August and December every year.

1. Introduction

This document is a version of the instructions for preparing copies for the final REILA journal. The format here described allows for a graceful transition to the style required for that publication.

This document is an example of what your camera-ready manuscript to REILA Journal should look like. Authors are asked to conform to the directions reported in this document.

2. General Instructions

The length of a camera-ready manuscript is 5-17 pages maximum. Write the manuscript in English. Write all text, including section titles and figures, in two-column format where each column is 8.5 cm by 24.5 cm (3.35 in by 9.65 in) and there is a 0.6 cm (0.24 in) space between the two columns. Exceptions to the two-column format include the title at the top of the first page and any full-width figures or tables. Start all pages directly under the top margin. Text should be centered on each page. Paper size should be A4, this roughly means leaving 2.5 cm (1 in) margins on left and right sides of each page as well as a 2.5 cm (1 in) margin on the top and bottom of each page.

Furthermore, type single-spaced. Indent when starting a new paragraph. Use standard fonts such as Times New Roman or Computer Modern Roman, 10 points for text, 11 points (bold) subsection headings, 12 points (bold) for section headings, 14 points (bold) for title, 11 points for authors' names, and 9 points for their affiliations.

2.1 The First Page

Center the title across both columns. Use the two-column format only when you begin the abstract.

Title: Place the title at the top of the first page, followed by the authors' names and their affiliations. Long title should be typed on two lines without a blank line intervening. Leave approximately 1 cm (0.39 in) between the title and the body of the first page.

Text: Begin typing the main body of the text immediately after the abstract, observing the two-column format as shown in this example.

2.2 Sections

Headings: Type and label section and subsection headings in the style shown on these pages. Use numbered sections, in order to facilitate cross references.

References: Please use APA citation style Sixth edition References; place the section before any Appendices, unless they contain references. Arrange the references in alphabetical order. Provide as complete a citation as possible, using a consistent format.

Appendixes: Appendixes, if any, directly follow the text and the references (but see above). Letter them in sequence and provide an informative title:

Appendix A Title of Appendix.

2.3 Footnotes

Put footnotes at the bottom of the page. They may be numbered or referred to by asterisks or other symbols.¹ Footnotes should be separated from the text by a line.²

2.4 Graphics

Illustrations: Place figures, tables, and photographs in the paper near where they are first discussed, rather than at the end, if possible. Wide illustrations may run across both columns.

3. Length of Camera-ready Manuscript

The length of a camera-ready manuscript is limited at most 5 - 17 pages. All illustrations, references, and appendices must be accommodated within this page limit. Please DO NOT put a page number in each page.
